Mrs. Boucher:

"I'm going to miss the people, the fun I have in the classroom and also the high you get when you make someone understand a topic. However, I'm not going to miss getting up in the morning, rude students, correcting papers over vacation and having to travel during peak school vacations. After I retire I plan on watching the Today Show every day and travel, travel, travel. Also, I want to relax and enjoy myself."

Mrs. Rogers

"One of the first things that I plan to do is travel over vacation time to places such as Hilton Head, Aruba, and Ireland. I also plan to be with my friends that have already retired. I have thought about teaching at a college level with people who plan on going into the field of education. More than anything I will miss the daily challenge, joy and intellectual stimulation that teaching adolescents gives. Also, no day is ever the same. I'm going to miss my colleagues. It has been a privilege to work here for the past 36 years. Thank you."

Ms. Cardoza:

"I will miss the smell of the grease paint and the roar of the crowd. When I retire, I will be playing golf."

Congratulations Class of 2008!

Dear Graduates:

Congratulations! Your hard work has earned you a diploma from Norton High School. As I'm sure you are aware, Norton High School has prepared you for whatever lies ahead by giving you a strong foundation and the ability to succeed as you begin the next phase of your lives.

Class of 2008, as you prepare to leave high school, rest assured that the Norton Public Schools community will miss you and your boundless energy and enthusiasm. In later years, as you look through the pages of this yearbook, I hope that your memories of your schooling in Norton will be happy ones.

Whether you choose to continue your education at a college, university or trade school, or if you choose to pursue a job upon graduation, or choose military or public service, I feel confident that your talents will enrich our world. I wish you the wisdom to listen to those you trust, yet the confidence to make your own informed decisions about important matters in your lives.

I hope that you will always remember those friends and teachers who had a positive impact on your education, and it's my hope that you will continue to learn and grow. I look forward to receiving reports about your achievements, and I hope that you will return to visit your school.

Effort is the key to success. May you always have the strength to do your best with everything you undertake as you embark on your journey through the rest of your lives. My parting wish for you is simple; that you meet with continued success, achieve whatever goals you set, and find happiness as you confront the challenges that lie ahead.

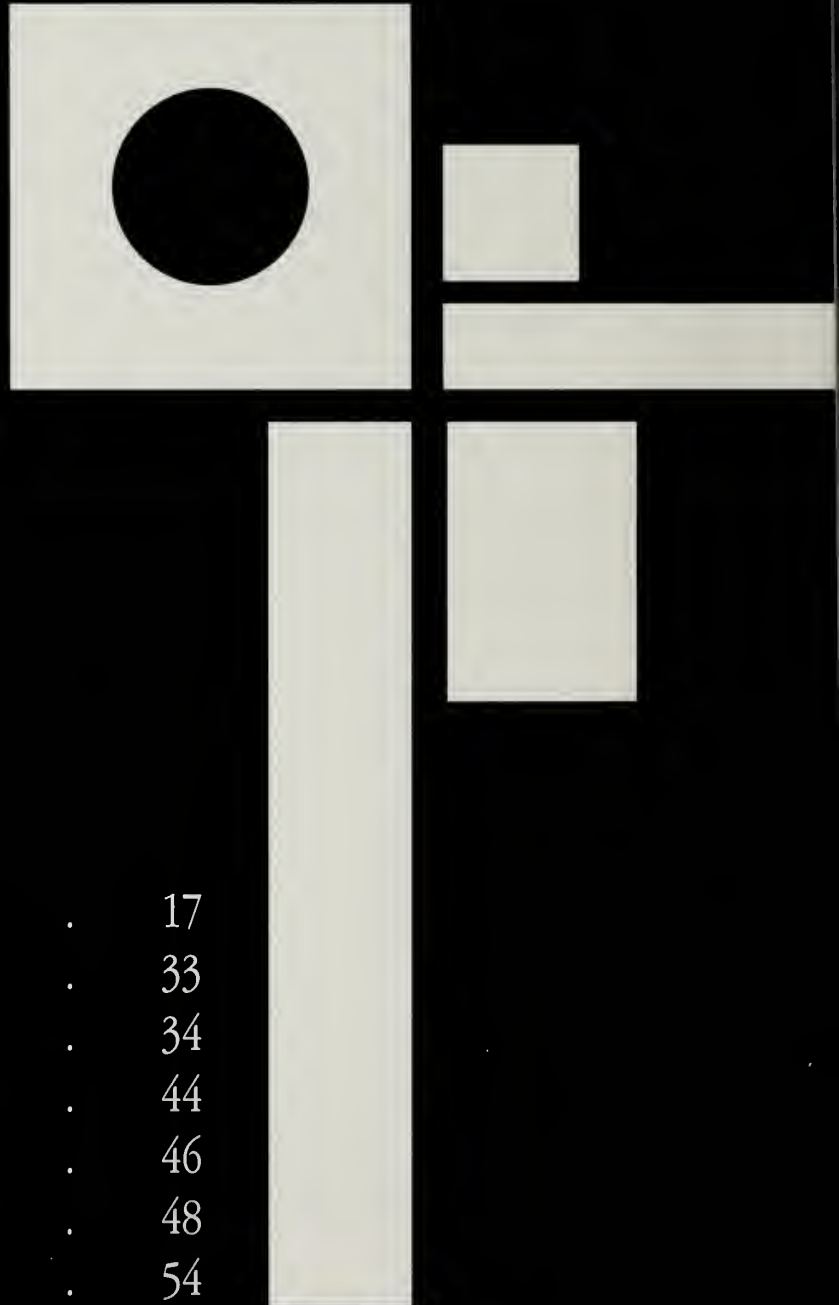

Sincerely,

Patricia H. Ansay, Ed. D.
Superintendent of Schools

To the Class of 2008:

Thank you for all you have done to make Norton High School a better place while you were here. I am glad we were able to have your class pioneer the School to Career and Dual Enrollment programs. Your involvement and hard work in these will help us be able to solidify those programs and offer even more. You have made a strong imprint on NHS while you have been here, and you will be remembered fondly by the NHS community. Good luck in whatever ventures you move to next. You will succeed.

Mr. Dewar
Principal

To the Class of 2008:

Over the past 2 years, since I started here, I have personally observed you mature and grow as adolescents into educated young adults ready for college or other life pursuits. You are a great bunch, and will be missed at Norton High School! Don't forget to cherish your remaining days as a teenager, vote, and travel the world as much as possible, take life by the horns and go for the gold while not forgetting your roots here in the Norton community. I look forward to seeing you return as Lancer alumni, and wish you the best in all that you pursue.

Mr. Barth
Assistant Principal

OUR STORIES

KATHLEEN ELYSE ADLER

Katie, Kate

Mom and Dad, thank you for making me who I am in life. You've taught me to be myself, and to never give up on anything. I love you. Josh and Mike (beak) thanks for being the best brothers anyone could ask for. Ashley, my best friend, sister, and soul mate, so many memories we've shared and so many more to come. I love you. Devin, I'm so glad we had the chance to become friends. I don't know where I'd be without you! Scotty-Murphy-lee, wii, wendys, and volleyball games, so many good times! Julia, painting rooms, making videos, beaching it, and crazy car rides. Thanks for being my best friend. Spring track (1), Class Treasurer (3), Yearbook (4)

"I learned that there were two ways I could live my life: following my dreams or doing something else. Dreams aren't a matter of chance, but a matter of choice. When I dream, I believe I am rehearsing my future" — David Copperfield

NICOLE JACQUELYN ALLEN

Mom, Dad & Scott — thanks for all of your love and support, I couldn't have done it without you. To be in the National Honor Society, a student must be a junior or a senior with a GPA of 4.30 or higher. Students must also demonstrate scholarship, character, leadership, and service. With help from their advisor, Mrs. Young, the National Honor Society gives its time in various community service opportunities. The society holds a college day where last year's graduates come to talk to the seniors about life in college. The goal of the National Honor Society is to help the school and community and every year, including this one, they have managed to succeed. This year's group was very passionate and enthusiastic about service. Many students tutor their classmates in various school subjects. This Christmas, many of the students volunteered at the annual SYSCO Christmas Party, which was held for the families of SYSCO employees. Those who volunteered helped in multiple ways, such as running game booths, photographing and greeting children. And no one can forget Brian Finney as Santa Claus! Also, the society participated in this year's Autism Speaks walks. The members got a crash course in understanding autism in order to help out with jobs such as game playing, face painting, and traffic directing. The society has demonstrated the quality of service in so many different ways.

Under the guidance of Madame Penza, the French Honor Society strives to promote understanding and appreciation of Francophone cultures and the French language. Many of its students help other students to better understand the French language and tutor them after-school if necessary. The group worked with the Spanish Honor Society in planning the Semi-Formal and hosting a fabulous Mardi Gras celebration for the entire school. The cafeteria is spiced up with almost authentic New Orleans flare and students who attend love the ethnic atmosphere. They also teach at the elementary schools.

SPANISH HONOR SOCIETY

The National Spanish Honor Society consists of members who display outstanding leadership qualities and who have respectful character. Many members tutor their fellow classmates in the language. Not only is the Spanish Honor Society involved in school activities, such as the Day of the Dead celebration and the Semi-Formal dance, along with French Honor Society, but also in the community. Every month or so, the students go the local nursing home EPOCH and visit with the residents there; activities include spelling bees, caroling, bingo, teaching Spanish. Moreover, the honor society members have taken a keen interest in learning to salsa dance this year and have applied their newfound talent to organize a Salsa Night in order to raise money for Teacher Appreciation. Ms. Godfrey is the advisor, and she always manages to keep activities fun and give the society some Hispanic flare.

The Art Honor Society has enriched Norton High school for 22 years. To be involved, students must maintain at least a B average in their art class. The society does art-oriented community service in Norton such as face and window painting. Students also do fundraising for scholarships, such as painting pumpkins for Halloween, in hopes that every senior can receive money for college. Every March, the art show exhibits student artwork. The Art Honor Society is responsible for setting up the art show and selling items. The Society also submits many things to the Local Colour and Newspaper at the school, including beautiful artwork.

Many of the students in the society are in high-level art classes, and even go on to art school.

QUILL AND SCROLL HONOR SOCIETY

Members of the Quill and Scroll Honor Society take their pledge to be inducted into the society. In their pledge they vow to keep a firm sense of journalistic integrity.

Quill and Scroll Honor Society President, senior Julianne McCready.

The Quill And Scroll Honor Society is run by English teacher Ms. Malone. The society is made up of members with a passion for writing and editing, including members from other Norton High School organizations like Local Colour, Yearbook, and The Lance newspaper. The goals of the club are to participate in written activities in school, and to assist other clubs with their written activities.

TRI-M HONOR SOCIETY

Tri-M, which means Modern Music Masters, is an honor society focused on providing a method of recognizing musical achievement, strengthening our music program, helping members reach their full potential, motivating and recognizing its members' musical and personal achievements beyond the incentives of crest and grades, and encouraging its members to work together toward the same goal. The members must complete 10 hours of community service throughout the year. Additionally, the society puts on an annual talent show to raise money for scholarships.

DECA

The DECA program was started by Mrs. Heather Albritton and Mr. Cory Rogers from the Business/Technology Department. DECA is an association of marketing student as well as a technology student organization where students can go to have fun, have a positive effect on the community and learn - all at the same time. It also provides students with the opportunity to learn about marketing, starting their own business, getting involved in e-commerce, and the ins-and-outs of international business. Students can also learn leadership skills that will give them a head start toward a real career. DECA allows them the chance to enter their class projects into a competition that could lead not only to applause but also self-confidence and usable skills. The 49th Annual State Career Development Conference of the Massachusetts Association of DECA was held in Boston, March 13-15, 2008, and had over 1,400 DECA members and chapter advisors in attendance representing approximately fifty-five schools throughout the Commonwealth. The following students won awards and certificates at the conference: Kimberly Birkett, Kaitlyn Baird, Jessica Quintanilha, Colleen O'Neil, Brian Desmond, Nick Bradley, Samantha Ehrlich, Megan Leroux, Casey Bishop, Michelle Kilburn, Jennifer Shubert, Ricky Travers, Josh Kirkpatrick, Anthony DaSilva, Jeffrey Moore, Kevin Sullivan, Kevin Estano, and Mark Ledbetter, the state officer.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Student Council's main goals are to help improve the school by seeking input, being a voice of the students and their issues in school matters, and generally boosting school spirit. Student Council sponsors events such as The Santa Fund Drive, Homecoming Dance, and Spirit Week. Additionally, Student Council does general fundraising throughout the year. This year there were many memorable STUCO events that had the entire school involved. In the fall, they organized a pep rally, with advisor Mrs. Benoit as emcee. Before Thanksgiving, STUCO got the entire school pumped and proved that the school spirit is alive, it had just been dormant for a while.

For the holiday season, the STUCO members raised in the thousands for the Snata Fund; the students went to Target and each had about 200 dollars to spend on gifts for a child in need. Moreover, this year's talent show was a great success with an eclectic myriad of acts, such as singing, playing instruments, dancing, making jokes, and just plain rocking out. The first place winner was freshman Sarah Tenglin. The Le sisters, Michelle, Rosemary, and Carolyn, gave the audience a great performance playing dulcimers. Jackie Kamel was the goofy host and the judges were Mr. Barth, Mrs. Ardagna, and STUCO president Emily Carmichael. Ravi Patel is the vice president, Michele Le is the secretary, and Rosemary Le is the treasurer.

The Norton High School Drama Club, headed by Mr. Steven Miller, has in '07-'08, showcased its full potential. Though the group itself is small, the actors themselves are larger than life. The Drama Club has always been about being inclusive and welcomes new members with open arms. All of the members have become very close, as they realize that putting on a full production is not an easy task. All of the money that the club uses for sets, costumes, and royalty fees come from the previous year's ticket sales, and the plays are truly a combined effort.

DRAMA

This year, the Drama Club took on the huge task of performing a musical at Norton High School. The Off-Broadway hit entitled "You're A Good Man, Charlie Brown" was performed in the first week of December. Junior Michael Ahern starred as the man himself, Charlie Brown, with senior Lauren Smith starring as his little sister, Sally Brown. Lucy Van Pelt was played by senior Jackie Kamel and her brother Linus was played by Doug Valerie. Rounding off the gang were seniors Cameron Morton as the lovable Snoopy, and Brian Finney as the piano playing Schroeder. The play consisted of multiple musical and dancing numbers, with help from Kyla Polak and Wendy Malone on the singing and choreography. The Drama Club performed to a nearly sold out audience on both nights, and the play was a huge success!

The Norton High School Band has been an integral part of the school each and every year. The Band constantly entertains the school with their musical talent. Band is a class offered at Norton High, and these students also perform in concerts throughout the school year. Their annual Winter Concert was a big success this year, and their Spring Concert is always a delight. The band is made up with many different talented students, who play a variety of instruments. The band plays at school events throughout the school year. A lot of the students that make up the band also participate in Norton High School's Pep Band. In general, the students are musically talented and always in great spirit!

The NHS Pep Band plays a vital role every year in keeping the spirits at Norton High up! They attend every football game, play a selection of "fight songs" and cheer on our teams with the crowd. They performed at this year's first Pep Rally. During the rally, Doug Valeri conducted the band while the band kept the kids at Norton High in great spirits. The Pep Band can be seen at many Norton High events, and wherever school spirit is needed, Pep Band will be there!

At Norton, the Chorus is not only an after-school club, but also a class. In class, students sing a medley of songs, work on vocals, and rehearse for various school events. This year, Amanda Lizio, Sarah Tenglin, Lauren Kelleher and Elizabeth Estremera sang their way into other choral groups. Seniors Brittany Warren, Iris Brown, and Brian Finney keep it goofy and upbeat, even when there are difficult notes to hit. The chorus is conducted by Kyla Polak, who has proved to be a great new addition to the NHS Staff. In addition to chorus, Miss Polak was the music director for YAGMCB, a show that Brian, Brittany, and freshman Emily Jestus performed in.

GRANT-WRITING

In its second year at Norton High School, Grant Writing continues to work hard in seeking grants that will not only benefit the school, but community as well. The members dedicate an enormous amount of time to writing the grants, and have been recognized by local newspapers. The Grant Writing Club looks forward to expanding its membership in the future. The Presidents are Junior Caroline McNeil, and Sophomore Aaron Ledwith, the Junior Vice-President is Madeline Pizzuto, Junior Secretary Michelle Lee and Junior Treasurer Kristen Morris.

PEER MEDIATION

Norton High School's Peer Mediation system provides students with an alternative solution to fighting and its repercussions. Instead of allowing a conflict to fester and intensify, peer mediation encourages students to solve their disputes in a positive environment with their supportive peers. This system creates a safer and healthier setting for high school students.

The Lance is a newspaper written by Norton High School journalists from every grade, producing 8-9 issues per year. Students write news stories, features, and editorials on issues that range from student affairs to national news. Through their work on The Lance, students acquire the basics of print journalism. Many of our writers and editors find their work featured in other newspapers, such as The Sun Chronicle, The Norton Mirror, and The Boston Herald. Additionally, their work is entered into competitions, which are run by Suffolk University and the Associated Press. Issues of The Lance can be found in the main office, school library, and public library.

BIBLE STUDY

The Bible Study at Norton High School is now organized by senior Lindsay Bailey. Her faith in God is strong and she is pleased to be spreading the good word of God to her peers. Every Thursday the group meets and discusses topics related to passages and themes in the Holy Bible. The group also discusses The Silver Ring Thing, a program about teenage abstinence. Overall, Bible Study is a very open and friendly environment and welcomes all.

[CANN WALK-A-THON]

This summer, the Cann family experienced a terrible tragedy, and the entire town of Norton came together as a community to support them. Various fundraising events were organized for this reason, such as the Cann Walk-a-thon. There were about 300 people there, high school students, middle school students, teachers, and others in the community. About 40 teams entered the walk-a-thon for $50, which raised $1,400, not including other donations. Even through stormy weather, teams walked a circuit around the first floor of Norton High. During the event, there were other various activities for students to participate in the school. In the gym, there was a DJ where students danced, danced, danced. Movies played in the auditorium so students could take a break and enjoy a video. One particular event, however, stood out in Ms. Immonen's mind. "Around midnight, everyone gathered in the gymnasium to create luminaries. Glow sticks were placed in white paper bags that had been decorated by participants in remembrance of a loved one. These luminaries were then placed in a darkened hallway to create an inspiring lighted path."

Throughout the night, students made shirts to raise awareness of domestic violence that were displayed on lockers along the walking route, shown in the bottom left corner. There were also the home made t-shirts, pictured on students above, that typify the unity among the community. Moreover, groups made decorated squares for a quilt that would be given to the Cann sisters.

[PEP RALLY]

Norton High School students piled into the gym, the day before Thanksgiving break. The event was organized by Student Council with advisor Tanya Benoit as emcee. To begin, the students were divided, seniors in the first section of the bleachers, juniors next, then sophomores, and lastly, the freshmen because competitions would be by class. Events included a one-minute Santa Fund collection, tug-of-war, shoe relay, which also involved the faculty, and a performance from the cheerleaders. Even if the students were separated, they all banded together, exuding undeniable school spirit, fervent enthusiasm, and positive energy.

Pictured above, the school band plays a spirited piece to get the crowd going. Leading them is Doug Valeri, the drum major, a music enthusiast and an uplifting guy.

During the event, the cheerleaders put on quite a show. Spirited, peppy, they exemplify what this rally is all about.

Each class gave its all in each event, but in the end, it was the senior class of '08 who took the title of best class.

ENVIRONMENT

C Period Environment

E Period Environment

Miss Beisheim's Environmental Science classes began a paper recycling program during academic year 2006-2007. With the help of Assistant Principal Michael Barth and custodian John Young, the Environmental classes obtained recycle bins from the state which were placed in each classroom and office at the high school, as well as at the superintendent's office. This year's Environmental Science classes have continued the recycling efforts. Each week the Environmental classes are responsible for collecting accumulated paper from classrooms and offices. Although Miss Beisheim oversees the whole program, it has been designed and organized by students. This recycling effort is also a fundraiser for the Environment Science classes. The classes earn $5 per one ton of paper recycled.

YEARBOOK

The Sojourn Yearbook staff was fairly small this year for a club that usually consists of a large group of students; however, people cannot be measured in quantity, but in quality. Senior editors Lauren Smith and Brian Finney were determined to make this yearbook unlike any before it in so many different aspects. Their aspirations were lofty, but they had a solid group to match their passion and back them up. Catrina Cranshaw had an innate ability in design and technology, so she produced some funky, interesting layouts for a funky, interesting yearbook. Dynamic duo of juniors Matt Guido and Nicole Nelson delved in many tasks such as business-type work and the friends forever page. Ravi Patel worked hard but clandestinely on parent ads and business ads. Meg Leroux multitasked with sports pages, the Dr. Ansay page, and the Retiree page, even though some teachers were reluctant to have their picture taken. The club had to spend a lot of late nights after school working on the book, and advisors Miss Immonen and Mrs. Guillermo put in great effort daily in order to make the yearbook a success. Not many people realize how extreme the amount of time, effort, and dedication that goes into publishing a yearbook truly is, so please, don't spill anything on it.

[BASEBALL]

Last spring, the 2007 Norton Baseball Team played a noteworthy season, a season not to forget. Captains were Mike Boroni, Travis Jolly and Dave Billotte. Dave was not only team MVP but will also be a captain for the '08 season, along with Ben Hastings. These two players show promise and will be great assets to the team in the next season, along with Sean Ryan. All three were league all-stars. Sophomores for the '07 season Nick Salvo, Brian Desmond, and Eric Dzengeleski played junior varsity and all hope to bring their unique skills to the varsity team in 08.

-Ted Williams

The team's record for the regular season was 11-9. Additional seniors rejoining the team include Corey Hatch, Ryan Kok, and Jeff Moore. Also contributing to the team's wins were coaches Matt Dudley, Rick Dudley, Tim Laconte and head coach Dave Mollica. The team had a more impressive tournament record, 12-10. This was the first time Norton made the state tournament for baseball in 5 years. What an accomplishment!

[SOFTBALL]

The softball team had an overall good season despite a loss in the playoffs. The two captains, Tierney Marceau and Melanie Orphanos, had a positive effect on the team. The leading captains continuously strived to increase the team's stats with the help of some great junior players. Elizabeth Devolve had an overall good season as the shortstop. Jenny Bellavance, who was new to the team, amazed all with her agile moves on the field and her strong batting average. Ashley LaRoche, as right fielder, had the quick feet and soft glove that helped the team triumph. Alicia Scanlan, the back-up first baseman and designated hitter, performed with excellent reliability and delicate sportsman accuracy. Scanlan, joined by Eryn Dion, will become the two captains of the '08 season and hope to ignite the softball team's former glory.

The Norton Boys Tennis Team, coached by Courtney Schwartz, almost qualified for tournament their previous season. The team demonstrated outstanding improvements in every aspect of the game. Led by senior captain Dan Chung, the team struggled with their opponents in the Tri-Valley League, but maintained a positive attitude and great sportsmanship. Their improving record foreshadows a victorious and successful season in the near future.

“If you’re not a competitor, you’ve just got to go home.” - Venus Williams

The Spring Girls Tennis team displayed hard work and perseverance throughout the entire season. Their major dedication was demonstrated on multiple occasions. Led by then-seniors Jill Fisk and Laura Hathaway, the team showed extreme heart despite the challenging league that they were up against. Juniors Allison Dutcher, Lauren Southworth, and Rachael Maggiani also showed leadership skills and began to pave the way for their senior season. Each and every team member, however, played an important role both on court and off. Every player had something different to offer, and each improved in their respective position throughout the season. Even though they were the underdogs among their competition, the bond and personal accomplishments within the team ultimately shined through else.

[BOYS SPRING TRACK]

“Winning is about heart, not just legs. It’s got to be in the right place.”
- - Lance Armstrong

The Boys Spring Track Team was coached by Mr. Rukstalis and the captains were Matt Jordan, Jared Ide, and Kevin Sylvestre. Matt Jordan ran the 300m and 100m hurdles and placed first at almost every meet. John Norcott was a beast in the 100m dash. Present seniors such as John Todd, Matt Sumner, Brian Bettencourt, Joe Mitchell, and Greg Wry held up the team and exhibit great potential for this upcoming spring. Andrew Swiderski, aka Swiddy, was the best in his respective event. Other current juniors Ben Sargent, Gil O’Neil, and Cam Parker helped out the guys on and off the track.

[GIRLS SPRING TRACK]

The Norton Girls Spring Track had a tough year. However, along with the tough year there were many personal records set. Six people ended up going to states last year, and one moved on to all-states. Junior Sarah Doolan came in ninth in javelin. Senior Sarah Regan came in fifth in the 400 meter. The 4x800 meter relay, which consisted of Seniors Sarah Regan, and Stacey Allen, Juniors Amanda Sargent and Jackie Nash, also moved onto states. Kelly Allen, a sophomore, came in second place overall in states, and moved onto all-states for the team.

[CROSS COUNTRY]

In Cross Country, seniors Steph Bryant, Carolynn Ohlson, Katrina Idreos, Amanda Sargent, Brett Hinchliffe and John Camara led the team this year. Ben Sargent, a junior, improved greatly this year and showed promise for his senior year. Andrew Swiderski, also a junior, ran like a cheetah and placed in the top three in every meet. Mr. Rukstalis coached the team in his final year at Norton High School. Rukstalis was a great coach because he never pressured the team to do well; he expected it of them.

"That day, for no particular reason, I decided to go for a little run...when I got tired, I slept. When I got hungry, I ate. When I had to go... you know... I went."

[VOLLEYBALL]

The 2007 Volleyball season was full of hard working and dedicated players. Molly Anderson, the senior captain of the team, has been an important asset to the team as an outside hitter for two years. Co-captain Kelly Allen, a junior, provided the backbone of the team as a middle hitter. Although their record might not show it, the girls were successful on and off the court. Throughout the course of the year all players tried their hardest and improved greatly, while staying strong as a team. Each player brought unique skills to the court which the girls used to create an awesome team dynamic. The girls put up a good fight against each opponent which always made the games exciting to watch. They should be proud of their season because they accomplished so much and served up an ace.

[BOYS SOCCER]

The 2007 boys soccer season proved to be very successful. Three years of developing led up to one of the best soccer seasons that Norton High School has been a part of. Norton finished the regular season with a record of 10–3–5, good enough for second place in the Tri-Valley League, and ranked 11th overall in the state. In its first appearance in the playoffs in about 6 years, Norton went on to win the first three games including a dramatic overtime win against state powerhouse Old Rochester. Norton's season ended in the state semi-finals with a loss to Pembroke. The boys' success can be credited to the great senior leadership, as well as captain leadership through Brian Bettencourt, Tom McDermott, and Mike Kelly. Furthermore, the passion and determination that each player possessed proved to be a deciding factor in the team's overall success. Congratulations to all the players!

[GIRLS SOCCER]

The Norton Girls' Soccer Team may have faced some rough challenges in the Fall of '07 season. The players rose to the occasion, met their personal goals and even scored a few goals on the field. Captains Jen Brown, Jen Schubert, and Jess Colley led the girls and helped keep their spirits alive when their adversaries looked fierce. Danielle Jagatta and Jackie Nash, also soccer veterans in their senior year, supported their captains, led by example, and lightened the mood with silly but sweet singing. Coach Todd Kefor was there when they needed him. Though his antics were unorthodox, his analogies quirky, they proved to be effective nonetheless. But there is no I in team. Steph Powerhouse Powers and the Schuko Sisters Chelsie and Nicolette were integral pieces of the puzzle that was Norton Girls' Soccer. But no one can forget junior Casey Remick, the goalie, the key ingredient for the recipe for Defence. The season was not easy, but their final game against Ashland was epic to say the least; every senior brought their A game and played incredibly. It was the best way possible to end the season.

[FOOTBALL]

Since Coach Robb McCoy arrived, the Norton Football mentality has only gotten better and team morale is at an all-star high. The Lancer football season wasn't perfect, but it will be remembered. By posting a 6-5 record this year, the Lancers had back-to-back winning seasons for the first time in over ten years. The team had solid leadership with its five captains: Corey Hatch, Mike Glassman, Pat Hannon, Mark Ledbetter, and, of course, Jeff Moore, who have all been Tri-Valley League All Stars at least once. This year, the Lancers were privileged to be tied with the most Tri-Valley League All Stars, six to be exact. Pat Hannon was awarded Team MVP for his excellent play all season at guard and defensive end. Even though two of the team's players were not on the '06 roster, seniors Brandon Osborn and Dave Billotte were two huge additions to the team. The Lancers look to have a bright future in seasons to come, with four excellent 2008 Captains: Ricky Robichaud, Josh Archer, Ricky Travers, and Darren Doucette.

The Norton High School Fall and Winter cheerleading teams are composed of a group of energetic, dedicated, high-spirited girls. With captains Brielle Bowman, Chantal Desorbo, and Taylor Murphy sticking by their team no matter what occurred, the team succeeded during the season by constantly pumping up the crowds, and by winning 4th place in their winter competition. Coach Nicole Ledbetter and assistant coach Megan Lombard also contributed in keeping the team motivated. The girls had two great seasons, making Norton High School proud!

This year seniors Joe Mitchell, Kevin Sullivan, a captain, and John Cunliff rejoined the NHS Golf Team. Pete Danko, only a sophomore yet the co-captain, was greeted with enthusiasm as well as Swedish student Alex Magnusson. With past experience he proved a great asset, so great, he was written about in the Norton Mirror: How Swede It Is. Alex and Pete were the team MVPs. Joan Cardoza coached the team for the last time and emphasized being good at losing, even though the team won a decent number of their matches, almost double the season before. The team received an award that you can't get for winning lots of matches or having all the talent; the golfers won the sportsmanship award for the Tri-Valley League.

[SWIM]

“Just keep swimming.”

-Finding Nemo

The Norton Swim Team competed for a third year this winter with captains Sam Schuko and Matt Salvas. Courtney Mello and Rachael Maggiani rounded out the group of seniors. Other MVPs included Chris Jordan, Colleen McDermott, Krissy Comperchio, and Jess Lantos; both Jess and Krissy also play for club teams. Even though the team felt like one big family, many of the swimmers are actually related. Courtney and her sister Holly, only a freshman, both tread water in the 500, the longest race of all. Occasionally, Court gives her little sister pointers, helping her become even better. And the team can't forget Alec and Kaylyn Dorsey, a brother and sister who were like dolphins, with their swimming skills and loveability. However, the most memorable meet for them was in Stoughton, where the team swam their way to victory. It was their first win ever, and against a team that was much bigger than them. The Norton Swim Team proves that love for the sport and love for your team can only lead to feats of greatness.

The team also qualified for the MTAA State Tournament and had a six-game league winning streak during the middle of the season. The team found five outstanding senior players in Pat Hannon, Tom Mcdermott, Dave Billotte, Chris Brooks, and Josh Kirkpatrick, as they spearheaded the team's success. The entire team worked and played hard, led by their dedicated coach Mr. Lib. Senior captains Pat Hannon and Dave Billotte kept spirits high and united the team, and it truly was a season to be remembered!

[GIRLS BASKETBALL]

The Girls Basketball teams showed excellent dedication and hard work throughout the long season. Coach Currie came in at the last minute, just in time for the season to start, and he still managed to make the team better. Currie, along with Assistant Coaches Meg Mierszwinski and Jeff Moore, a senior at NHS, turned things around for the girls. But the team could not have done it without captains Liz Devolve, Jenny Brown, and Alyssa Ruta along with fellow seniors Jen Tessier and Katie Idreos. Their motivation on and off the court helped everyone to step up their game and the team has more wins to their record than they have had in a long while. Sophomore Kate Baird, along with many other underclassmen on the team, proved to be a formidable force and show promise in years to come. In addition to the regular season, Jenny Brown and Katie Idreos also played in the all-star game in early 2007. Katie believes this year was just a stepping stone for greater things in the future of NHS Girls Basketball.

[WINTER TRACK]

The NHS Winter Track Team welcomed two new coaches this year, Mr. Kent Taylor and Mr. Eric Paulus, as well as a healthy share of success. The boys team went 3-5 in the Tri-Valley League, while the girls defeated Millis for a 1-7 season record. Juniors Andrew "Swiddy" Swiderski and Kelly were named TVL All-Stars at the league meet, while Corey Hatch placed 6th in the 55m hurdles and Mark Ledbetter placed 6th in the shotput. Twelve athletes including seniors Carolyn Ohlson, Jackie Nash, Corey Hatch, Greg Wry, and Mark Ledbetter went to the Division IV State Meet in February. Kelly Allen also qualified for the All-State Meet in shotput, as did the boys' 4 x 200 meter team of seniors Corey Hatch and Greg Wry, junior Brian Desmond, and freshman Tim Johansmeyer.

[WRESTLING]

This year's wrestling team were Tri-Valley League champions under the coaching of head coach Pat Coleman and assistant coach Holmes. The captains were John White, Brandon Osborne, both seniors, and Josh Archer, a junior. With excellent leadership from stern coaches and motivating captains, four wrestlers worked hard enough to make states, and one, Andrew Rockwell, made it all the way to All-States. Andrew, along with others such as Eric Tetreault and Dan Sugar, prove to be major competition in the near future. Overall, the team had a winning record.

[MAJORETTES]

The Norton High School Majorettes Team holds one competition each year for the NEMA program ranges from grades 4th through 12th, and includes male and female competitors. The "A Squad" is made up of eight girls, and seniors competitors include Ashley LaRochelle, Jessica Musseau, and Lindsey White. This year, the Norton High School Majorettes won 1st place in their first competition, and 4th in their second. The Majorettes also march in the town parades with the band, and pump up crowds during many town events throughout the year.

The girls twirled gracefully in every single competition, hoping there would not be a girl out of sync or a baton out of place.

SENIOR CRUISE

This year's Senior Cruise kicked off on a chilly but exciting Saturday night in Boston. The Spirit of Boston glided along the harbor as the class of '08 danced the night away, dressed in their best Halloween attire! Despite the brisk weather, spirits were high as the seniors spent one of their first senior nights together. Good food and great laughs made the cruise a night to remember!

Pictured above, the class of '08 join together for a rousing round of the YMCA.

Best dressed winners included Tim Foley as Mario, Jeff Moore as Luigi, Kevin Sullivan as a 'chick magnet', Johnny Ricca as an Oompa Loompa, and John Todd as Steve Urkel.

HOMECOMING

The 2007 Homecoming Dance, held in October, took place in the Norton High School cafeteria, and the theme for the dance was "Cruise Casual." This meant that attendees dressed up in things that you may find on a cruise ship, ranging from sun dresses and shirts and ties to summer-looking attire. This was a special evening in that a Red Sox playoff game was occurring, so the students were able to watch the game while dancing their hearts out. Senior Molly Anderson was crowned Homecoming Queen, with senior Tom McDermont being crowned her Homecoming King. The dance was a great way to end the exciting Homecoming week of 2007 at Norton High!

SNOWBALL

The Snowball was a fun-filled evening of dancing and socializing with friends. It took place on January 12th, 2008, a great way to start off the New Year! It was a beautiful "Winter Wonderland" reminiscent of the popular holiday tune. Everyone looked wonderful and had a fantastic time. All around, the night was just what we hoped for, a lovely evening. The DJ played all the right songs so that everyone was pleased. And we were even able to watch the Patriots Game, so no one missed one moment of the sport! Freshman Kayla Flaherty gave her words of wisdom to describe the time: "Keep these memories close about the Snowballs, and even other dances, because a night just as amazing as that with your friends only comes around a few times." We won't be at NHS forever, so cherish the good times.

SEMI-FORMAL

At 7 PM on November 30, 2007, tons of Norton High's juniors and seniors poured into the Mansfield Holiday Inn for a night of dancing and fun! For the first hour, food was served while many couples and groups got their pictures professionally taken. As soon as the plates were cleared it was time to get the party started. Within minutes the dance floor was crowded with students eager to dance the night away. From 8 to 11, dancers partied up to hit songs like "Low" and "Soulja Boy", and you can't forget the classics "Cotton-Eyed Joe" and the "Cha Cha Slide". All who attended had a fabulous time, and when the time came for the last dance, you could tell people were sad to see the night over so quickly.

PROM

The Norton High School Prom of 2007 kicked off at the Ridder Country Club in Bridgewater on May 5th, 2007. The theme of the dance was Casino Night, and the juniors and seniors had a great time dancing the night away. The song of the prom was My Wish by Rascal Flatts, chosen by the junior class. It is tradition for the junior class to plan the prom for the seniors. Class of '08 advisors Miss Borini and Miss Beishiem, along with the prom committee of juniors, helped make the dance a success with planning, decorating, and general preparations for the big event. A great time was had by all, and the memories will last forever.

Brielle Bowman

Dear Brielle,

We have loved you so much right from the start. All nine pounds of you instantly won our hearts. It was on a late August evening, that our life of parenting was just beginning. You were such a beautiful little girl, always dressed up with lace, ribbons, and curls. Never knowing what challenges for you were still ahead, you were just under three when we heard the words all parents dread. Through it all you have proven to be the scarecrow, the tin man, and the lion all wrapped up into one, intelligent, caring, and courageous throughout the battle we pray you have won. Different sports and activities it seems you have tried them all. But we know the one you've enjoyed the most, is cheering for football. Stay true to yourself, Brielle, as you make new decisions. Don't let other people cloud your own visions. Though your dreams one day may lead you far, we hope you will always remain the special person you are. To your family and friends, you are such an inspiration. We couldn't be more proud of you and send our congratulations!!! Continue your journey with strong determination, and may God bless you with happiness upon your graduation.

We love you very much.

Mom and Dad

Dear Brielle,
Sisters since birth,
We've laughed 'til it hurt.
And had our fair share of fights.

Through good times and bad,
We're both equally glad,
That you're our sister for life!
Good Luck
Love, Shaylee and Kambrynn

Congratulations Class of 2008!

Jennifer,

You stand before us today an amazing person prepared to make your mark in the world. Your determination, values, and dedication have put you on a path that ensures a bright future. As a student, you are conscientious, oftentimes overthinking your task to the point of exhaustion. As an athlete, you are a force to be reckoned with, an "animal" some have said, but you lead by example and with a warm strength and confidence that quickly earns the trust, respect, and friendship of others. As our daughter, you are an endless source of pride, joy, admiration.

Be happy, remain true to yourself, and remember how much we all love you. Our countless games of peek-a-boo are a fond but distant memory, but you will always be our little Boo.

Love always,

Mom, Dad,
Kristen, and Eric

Jessica,

You have brought so much love and happiness into our lives. You have grown into a beautiful, self-assured young lady. Through your diligence and hard work you persevered and accomplished so much. We're honored to be your parents. Continue to dazzle people with your smile and humor and believe in yourself and your dreams. You have endless opportunities in life just waiting for you. Our wish for you is to find the joy in all you do and be happy.

CONGRATULATIONS

Much love,
Mom and Dad

There are places I remember
all my life, though some have chaged,
Some forever, not for better,
Some have gone and some remain.
All these places had their moments,
With family and friends I still can recall,
Some are dead and some are living,
In my life I've loved them all.

Love Caite

Taylor,

It is with pride and joy and a touch of sadness, that we watch you graduate from high school. When you were a little girl, time seemed eternal, yet it rushed us to this milestone day. To say we are proud of you seems inadequate, but know that we are proud. We only hope that someday you recognize the significance of what you have accomplished. Stay as steadfast as you are today, always true to your family, friends and your values. Our wish for you is a future filled with love, hope and happiness.

We love you,

Mimi, Great Gram, Uncle Art and Aunt Jody

Taylor,

Never forget how amazing you are and have faith that the power within you can create the life that you desire. You amaze us everyday with the young woman that you have become.

At this time, we should point out to you the wonders of the world you now enter. However, we think it is perhaps fairer to warn the world of wonders who is about to enter it. We are so proud of you! Congratulations on your graduation - pack a pillow and a blanket and see the world!

We love you - Mom and Dad

Dear Chantal,

CONGRATULATIONS! We can't believe this time has come. We are so proud. You are an awesome individual with so much to look forward to. We have seen you grow from that shy little girl to a confident, beautiful young woman who (with her fierce attitude) will take the world by storm. Never let anyone stand in the way of what you want, and believe what you deserve. You CAN have it all. Our wish for you is that you have a passion for life and do those things that make you happy. Believe in yourself, because we believe in YOU!

We love you,
Mom and Dad

Chan,

It seems just a short time ago we were holding hands on our way to the bus stop in Elementary School. You have now come to the end of one journey, just to begin another, as you go to college to become the person you have dreamed of. Your potential is great and your power limitless. DARE TO DREAM! As you make your way through life, make decisions with your feet firm on the ground looking toward the future, never looking back at what could have been. Live for what is and what will be. Live the life you long to live. And...ALWAYS... remember to SMILE!

I LOVE YOU!

Love always, Kris

To Our Wonderful Granddaughter Nadya,

Since your birth, we felt that we welcomed a brilliant human being to this world. It was the right guess. From one success to the next Nadya became the star. We are proud of the star of the stars. Your bright future awaits you. Congratulations! We love you.

Love, Your Grandparents, Edward and Josephine Abouszeid

Nadya,

It has been a joy to watch you grow into such an amazing and accomplished young lady. We know that no dream is out of your reach. Your smile, beauty, and grace lights up a room and warms our hearts.

Where ever you go and who ever you become, we know that you will make your mark in this world. We love you very much and wish you a lifetime of success and happiness. Always remember to be true to yourself, respect yourself, and believe in yourself. We will always be here for you if you ever need us, for a laugh, for a cry, for advice.

Dream big and don't stop until you get there! Don't just strive to be the best, strive to be a better person that not only succeeds but can also give back, you have so much to offer the world.

Good luck, and we love you very much.

Love, Auntie Mireille, Uncle Joe, Dalton, Dylan, Isabella, Auntie Therese, Uncle Bob, Samantha, Gabriella, Auntie Paula, Uncle George, Kylie, Katrina, and Edward

Nadya,

We are very proud of all your accomplishments that you have achieved. This is just the beginning of you towards your new journey.

We wish you all the luck in the future.
Congratulations. We love you very much.

Nadya,

How quickly time passes, how fast go the days. Where did my little girl go? You've turned into this amazing beautiful young lady right before my eyes. I am proud to call you my daughter. I am going to definitely miss the meetings, the competitions, and the traveling that I was fortunate to share with you the past four years. I will always treasure the good times we've had. I wish I could freeze time to enjoy those precious moments a bit longer. But I know time does not stop and life needs to continue as you begin a new journey.

My beautiful daughter, I thank you for the pride and joy you've brought into my life. I wish you the truest of happiness. I wish you the greatest of love. I wish you the strength to face challenges with confidence and wisdom. My greatest wish for you is to always know I will always be here for you to listen, talk, laugh, cry and for guidance.

Believe in yourself, believe in your dreams, and always remember, I believe in you! I love you with all my heart.

Love, Mom xoxoxo

Nadya,

When you were born, you filled our lives with pride and joy. Through the years we have watched you grow in so many wonderful ways. You have made us so proud in all you've done.

You've turned into quite a lady. A perfect combination of brains and beauty, the world is yours and awaits your talents. The possibilities are endless. Hold your head up with pride; you've done a great job. As you begin your journey with college, remember to work as hard as you always have and don't ever give up on your dreams. Congratulations! We love you forever.
